Discipleship Summit

April 19-21, 2012

*"God's will is for you to be holy...
God has called us to live
holy lives, not impure lives."
1 Thessalonians 4:3a,7*

“For God saved us to live a holy life...”
2 Timothy 1:9a

Titus Women invites you to come for a time of renewal, inspiration, and participation as we grow together in knowing the reality of life in Christ—living holiness.

Living holiness is fulfillment of the first and greatest commandment: “You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind” Matthew 22:37.

The possession of a holy heart and living a life of scriptural holiness is the intention of the Father for all of those who belong to Jesus. Scriptural holiness is the heartbeat of the gospel of Jesus Christ, who is the center and source of victorious living and the means of making disciples, thus fulfilling the great commission (Titus 2:14).

Linda Boyette has been a part of Titus Women since its beginning and currently serves as Coordinator for Discipleship. She teaches a Bible study in her home and speaks at retreats and conferences in the United States and overseas inviting women into Sacred Fellowship with the Father, Son and Holy Spirit through a holy heart. She and her husband, Phil, have three sons and live on a farm in Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

Beth Coppedge is the founder of Titus Women. She speaks at retreats and conferences all over the United States and overseas. She challenges and encourages women to lives of personal holiness. She and her husband, Dr. Allan Coppedge, live in Wilmore, Kentucky, and have four children, two of whom are missionaries, and thirteen grandchildren.

Bette Crouse is a former missionary to Korea with OMS International (now known as One Mission Society). Bette works alongside her husband ministering both nationally and internationally with a global focus and deep-heart burden for a lost world. She is a teacher, speaker, mentor, writer and pianist. Bette and her husband, Dr. J.B. Crouse, reside near Wilmore, Kentucky. They have three sons and ten grandchildren.

Aletha Hinthorn has been in ministry for more than 20 years with Women Alive Ministries. Through speaking, writing and editing she has inspired, taught and encouraged women (and men!) to live wholly holy lives. Aletha is the founding director of the Come to the Fire Conference. Aletha and her husband, Dr. Daniel Hinthorn, live in Leawood, Kansas. They have two children and two grandchildren.

Stephanie Hogan serves as Director of Titus Women. She has had a love for Jesus and people since she was young and began leading discipleship groups in high school. Currently she leads a small group of young women from her church. Stephanie has her master's degree in counseling and loves offering women God's hope and healing through His Word as she speaks at women's retreats across the country. She and her husband, Bryce, live in Sicklerville, New Jersey.

Renita Koehn is an evangelist in the arts with the Francis Asbury Society. Renita has her doctorate in Vocal Performance and has taught voice at the college level for over 20 years in California, Mississippi, Tennessee, and Kentucky. She lives in Lexington, Kentucky, with her husband, Daniel.
