The Keys to Victorious Christian Living!
Yippee!!

Personal Accountability from Titus 2:3-5

*“Bid the other women likewise to be reverent in behavior,
not to be slanderers or slaves to drink;
they are to teach what is good.” Titus 2:3*

Older Women in the Lord

1. Reverent (Behavior) -

Is Jesus the Love of my life and the center of my being? Is His Presence in my life demonstrated in my thoughts and actions?

2. Not Slanderers -

Are people’s reputations safe with me? Do I gossip?

3. Not Given to Much Wine -

Am I filling a void in my life with anything other than Jesus Christ (liquor, drugs, prescription drugs, food, shopping, family, job, etc.)? Jesus wants us to be filled with Himself! Ephesians 3:18. Let’s be addicted to Jesus. He loves us so much & sets us free!

4. Teachers of Good Things -

Are we investing our lives in a few younger women teaching them the Joy of Knowing Jesus and walking with God? Jesus wants to make all of us fruit bearing Christians (John 15). The older women in Jesus are to teach the younger women.

I commit myself to personal and group accountability, so that Jesus can continue to glorify Himself in my character, my service, and my relationship to Him.

D. Fasting

“Then having fasted and prayed, and laid hands on them, they sent them away.” Acts 13:3

- To fast (or some form of self-denial) once a week following the custom of the early church.

II. To meet together weekly with an accountability group:

“And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together.” Hebrews 10:24-25

- Report on memory verses, devotions, prayer, etc.
- Pray together

III. To Keep the Sabbath holy and to be regular in attendance at public worship.

“So Jesus came to Nazareth where He had been brought up. And as His custom was, He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day.” Luke 4:16

“Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.” Exodus 20:8.

Personal Accountability from Titus 2:3-5

“ So train the younger women to love their husbands and children, to be sensible, chaste, domestic, kind, and submissive to their husbands that the word of God may not be discredited.” Titus 2:4,5

Younger Women in the Lord

1. Love your husband.

Do I really love my husband? Or is my love conditional? In my inner heart, if I am honest, do I feel he exists to meet my needs and wants, and am I angered when he fails to live up to my expectations? Am I asking Jesus to love him through me, the way he longs and needs to be loved? (A Sobering Question).

2. Love your children.

Do I really love my children, or do I love them because they are an extension of myself, and I love myself? Am I investing in them for eternity? Am I giving myself to them in time, in discipline, and in self-sacrificing love with joy? Am I spending time with them daily in spiritual things?

3. Be Sensible.

How practical God is! Am I letting Jesus make me sensible and not given to excesses or compulsions (in eating, in finances, in hobbies, in leisure, in exercise)?

4. Be Pure

Are there any unholy attachments in my life? Am I emotionally attached to someone other than my husband, male or female, at the office, at church, on the Internet, in my fantasy? Am I addicted to sex outside of marriage, soap operas, or romantic novels? Jesus can give us a pure heart. "Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God." Matthew 5:8

5. Be Homemakers

Is Jesus creating a happy "Jesus" home through us? Are we creating a home that ministers and cares for the needs of our family? Do we have "open" homes like Lydia's? Are we hospitable? Are our homes clean and picked up?

6. Be Submissive to Our Husbands

We need to remember God's secret for freedom is in submission to Jesus in every area of our being. Submission sets us free from the terrible tyranny of having to get our own way.

We need to honestly share with our husbands what we feel and think, but then we need to trust Jesus and cultivate His submissive spirit. What we want is not our way, but God's will. His will is good, acceptable, and perfect!!!

YABADABADOO!!! Romans 12:1-2

Down through the ages God has had a remnant of believers that have known Him and loved Him. It is not in numbers that God can bring revival, but in the purity of the faithful who walk with God blameless against the impurity of their age.

GROUP ACCOUNTABILITY

"By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit; so you will be my Disciples." John 15:8

I COMMIT MYSELF TO THE FOLLOWING:

I. To seek every day to know God by spending _____ (amount of time) in personal devotions.

A. Studying God's Word

"Be diligent to present yourself approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." II Timothy 2:15

B. Prayer

"Therefore I exhort first of all that supplications, prayers, intercessions and giving of thanks be made for all men." I Timothy 2:1

- Pray daily for your family.
- Pray daily for the salvation of three people who need to know Jesus Christ personally. (Your Three Most Wanted)
- Pray daily for a country of the world that God lays on your heart.
- Pray daily for a revival of God's people right where you live. Let Jesus begin it in you!

C. Memorizing Scripture

"This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it." Joshua 1:8

- Get into the happy habit of memorizing God's word.
