Dear Lydia Prayer Partner,

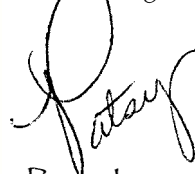

We are not one but many, and our numbers are increasing—clusters of women around the world praying for God's glory to be revealed. Our name is taken from the story in Acts 16:6-15 where Paul found Lydia and a group of women down by the riverbank praying! That picture excites me!

Whether you are meeting by the riverbank, in your home, at a church, school, community center, or workplace, there is power in united prayer! We are not praying for small things but for a mighty outpouring of the Spirit of JESUS throughout the earth!

For thirty-five years I have been leading prayer groups, conducting prayer seminars, organizing prayer retreats, speaking on prayer, writing about prayer, directing individuals in prayer walks through their life, and encouraging others to be involved in prayer. Amazing things have happened as I have watched God transform me and others. Prayer works!

It is exciting to me that you are interested in prayer materials for your Lydia Prayer Group. These materials have been prepared to help guide you in praying for revival for yourself, your families, neighborhoods, churches, cities, countries, and the world. I am delighted for you to be an active participant in the Lydia Prayer Group Movement experiencing the incredible power of united prayer!

Sincerely His,

Patsy Lewis
Lydia Prayer Director
